

The Magic of Early Childhood Education!

(30 to 75 minutes)

Working in the most important and least appreciated profession, those who care for and teach young children burn out far too often. Turnover is high and frustration runs higher even as leaders strive to retain good employees and motivate disengaged ones. In a fun and moving presentation, Billy Riggs tickles funny bones and inspires hearts as he reminds early childhood educators of their enormous impact and teaches them the 3 factors they control that will reinvigorate their souls and move the world. Attendees see their hearts inflamed with a passion to run back to work and invest in the lives of children.

Even when you don't love your job, you can love why you do it!

Testimonials from Early Childhood Educators

A magical, moving and fun program that will inspire, equip and energize those who work with children.

Preventing burnout can be a real trick.

Click icon to watch video →

Attendees will learn to:

- ◆ Galvanize employees by the power of a noble dream.
- ◆ Be reminded of the huge impact of their work.
- ◆ Be inspired to use the Pygmalion Principle to change the direction of children's lives
- ◆ Accept personal responsibility for providing a positive environment for children.
- ◆ Have their spirits renewed.
- ◆ Laugh until their cheeks hurt.
- ◆ Learn to love why they do their lives, even when they don't love the job, itself.

Who Should Attend?

Caregivers,
Childcare Managers,
Early Childhood Teachers

